

Window Fashions Magazine Presents

West Coast Interiors: Windows on the West

Welcome Reception August 19, 2008
Seminars August 19-21, 2008
Show Floor August 20-21, 2008
San Diego Convention Center, San Diego, CA

A specialty event highlighting a regionally based show floor and conference program that delivers everything you need to be successful in the business of window fashions on the West Coast. The boutique setting encourages attendees and exhibitors to interact, drive sales, and do business. Designed specifically for the window-fashions industry, this event offers new products including new fabrics, hardware lines, trends, trims, accessories, and more. Walk away with the industry's top-certification credits through WFCP and accredited CEUs, while taking home the most cutting-edge industry information through the Windows On The West seminar program.
