NGPP High-End Workshop!

June 17th, 2006 in Atlanta, GA

The Atlanta Chapter of the NGPP is hosting a professional paperhangers workshop focused entirely on high-end wallcoverings. The goal is to bring NGPP professionals up to date on the latest wallcoverings for upscale installations and the methods needed to successfully achieve this goal. This is a “hands-on” workshop where every member will have the opportunity to see, feel and touch these exotic materials as well as apply them to the wall. You will have the opportunity to learn the ins and outs of wallcoverings that most paperhangers are not qualified to install. The range of materials includes commercial and residential materials from paper-backed 54” to bamboo. If you have ever passed on a lucrative job because you were afraid of the wallcovering, now is the time to put those kinds of fears behind you. Sign up for the Atlanta Workshop and bring your expertise up to the state of the art!

Your tax-deductible investment is only $75.00 with pre-registration or $85.00 at the door.

Please make your checks to NGPP or call 800.254.NGPP (6477) for credit card registration.
